Rules and Regulations

Participants' Declaration of Consent

I hereby declare that, upon the submission of my application, I accept and agree to the terms and conditions written by VMT 26's organizing team (or "the organizing team"). By violating or disregarding any of the rules stated in the document, the organizing team reserves the right to take action against me according to the severity of the broken rules, including but not limited to disqualification in VMT 26 and any future events hosted by the organizing team. I would also understand that the organizing team reserves their rights to make changes on the written rules and regulations at their decision. I would also accept the decisions made by the organizing team as the final decision, and will not contest and challenge their decisions in any form under any circumstances.
